

Hermeneutics

Hermeneutics means the science of interpretation.

This is an advanced course on how to study the bible. As you read the different genres of scripture you must interpret them differently. This class gives you the tools to do so.

Once again this class is an advanced class and you should have some understanding of the bible and doctrine before taking this class.